FRI. 6-9PM
SAT. 11AM-6PM
SUN. 11AM-6PM

ACID-FREE is a Los Angeles-based Art Book Market & Bazaar established by a programming collective of independent publishers, librarians, artists, designers, and editors. ACID-FREE seeks to create new spaces for critical discussion and commerce in support of the diversity of independent publishing practices in the arts. Organized annually, ACID-FREE provides a hybrid economic- and social-space, engaging a broad swath of the Los Angeles arts community. This year's ACID-FREE * LITE provides a platform for 50+ West Coast exhibitors, presenting new publications and projects alongside food and music programming.

ACID-FREE * LITE takes place across the compound located at 3021 Rowena Avenue, in and among The GALLERY (aka Marta), The COURTYARD, and The GARDEN (aka Plant Material).
